- and here is the KUer's feedback:

"I noticed an article about some foreigner who promotes all things China. There are a lot of guys who come here to the Mainland and do that. I suspect it's their bread and butter. Having lived here for 25 years, I discovered that being a shill as a foreigner can be a somewhat lucrative enterprise, depending on one's popularity. My Canadian friend tried to give me pointers on making videos like he did, suggesting some sites here and even YouTube, and even let me borrow his Sony camera for a while. It's a highly technical procedure and I couldn't figure it out and didn't have the time or inclination to continue. I'm not shilling. I speak honestly. He explained to me what he did and it was clear that he's wined and dined where he goes usually. He promotes projects that portray China in a positive view. The projects I saw are to be lauded, but there's an element of a fake reality in some of what he does. I caught him once over his exaggeration of the air quality here. It's true that they've made progress, since they've gone electric, with so many vehicles not using petroleum fuel, but who knows what kind of pollution there is in running electric vehicles and batteries, not to mention the production of them. What bothered me was his exaggerated claims. In a city of 8 million people, sometimes you can't see the buildings three kilometres away due to the haze and pollution. It's hard to tell what is traffic pollution and what is geoengineering, which is very strong here. Anyway, my point is that it's a burgeoning little industry for some to promote China on the Internet. An Aussie friend of mine is also very sensitive to China bashing and will defend them a bit too much. There is a sabre-rattling political stance since the end of WW2 and the beginning of the Cold War and the mafia-like government that fled to Taiwan under Chiang Kai-shek. If you look at Whitney Webb's book, 'One Nation Under Blackmail', she gets into how entrenched these mercenaries and drug-runners, who were part of the Kuomintang, were in the US Government. It's not just black hats and white hats, though; there's a lot of gray. While China is definitely part of the NWO, it's a bit hypocritical for the West to write them off as being so sinister, when, in my opinion, they are more of a positive influence in the world than Europe or the US and the UK. They have done many projects that are unbelievable in the world to help Africa and SE Asian countries (when they build up a country or a region, that region becomes a new market eventually; it's all 10-to-20 year projects here), with no strings attached. It's not the World Bank or USAID, as documented in the book, 'Confessions of an Economic Hitman'. It's actual charity. Of course, it would be naïve of me to think that China doesn't expect some form of requite at some point."

> Trump's 'Finish the Genocide' Plan: The Ugly American on Steroids" (Excerpts:) "Is Israel turning away from reality towards apocalyptic fantasy as a response to its geopolitical zugzwang*? [*a situation in which the obligation to make a move in one's turn is a serious, often decisive, disadvantage] Many cultures throughout history have walked that path, and it generally hasn't ended well. In the late 19th century, Native Americans danced the Ghost Dance in an effort to trigger an apocalyptic transformation that would reverse the white man's conquest and bring back the buffalo. Like today's messianic-millenarian rabbis, those Native Americans confronted a historical reality that was inexorably moving in an unfavorable direction. 'Israel', like the 19th-century Native Americans, faces a highly uncertain future due to world-historical changes far beyond anyone's control. The Zionist entity's first 75 years occurred in a relatively favorable geopolitical environment characterized by US imperial hegemony. Though the genocidal Jewish settler colony's usurpation of the Holy Land was never accepted, and will never be accepted, by the people of the region, the wishes of those people didn't matter, because Zionist Jews were able to gain power over the US government and use the global hegemon's power to force Zionism down the throat of a protesting world. Today US global hegemony is fading. The coming multipolar world will be dominated by the Global South and its leading great power, China, which retains a bitter memory of the abusive Western colonialism that has now reached its apotheosis with the genocide of Gaza. During the next few decades the shifting geopolitical balance of power will create an international environment that will be radically less favorable to 'Israel' than the previous US-dominated global order was. And the more abysmally 'Israel' behaves, the more wars it causes and the more genocides it perpetuates, the more anti-Zionist the emerging post-American global order will be. So 'Israel' faces a stark choice: (1) admit defeat and allow Gaza to be rebuilt, with Hamas enduring and hence victorious despite whatever fig leaves disguise that fact; or (2) flee forward into ever-more-apocalyptic war and genocide, thereby guaranteeing that the emerging post-American world will soon terminate the Zionist experiment 'with extreme prejudice'. Either way, the writing is on the wall for the Zionist entity, and no amount of obscenely genocidal bluster emanating from Ugly American Trump can disguise that fact.":

> "Invasion of Libya on the Same Day as the Invasion of Iraq: The Vernal Equinox – The Vigilant Citizen" - From March 2011, but as we're now in the month of March, it's best to be (as always) aware!

(Excerpts:) "The war on Iraq was declared on March 19th 2003. Western forces attacked Libya on March 20th 2011. Is there an occult reason behind this? Both invasions occurred on the eve of the Vernal Equinox – a date that was – and still is – extremely significant throughout History. It is the date of the Sun's resurrection and was often celebrated with a blood sacrifice to 'impregnate the Earth'...According to some researchers, in Illuminati lore, the Spring Equinox is considered a Minor Sabbath but still requires human sacrifice. March 21-22 is dedicated Goddess Ostara (Ishtar, also spelled, 'Eostre'), for whom 'Easter' is named. March 21 is one of the Illuminati's Human Sacrifice Night. Ishtar was the Babylonian goddess of fertility, love and war. Her name derives from the words for 'Dawn'. Is it a coincidence that the name of the military operation in Libya is 'Operation Odyssey Dawn'? Are we looking at another mega-ritual?" - To possibly happen this March?:

"People Are Paying Millions to Dine With Donald Trump at Mar-a-Lago" (Excerpts:) "Guests are paying millions of dollars to dine and meet with President Donald Trump at special events held at his Mar-a-Lago estate in Palm Beach, Florida. Business leaders can secure a one-on-one meeting with the president at Mar-a-Lago for $5 million, according to sources with direct knowledge of the meetings. At a so-called candlelight dinner held as recently as this past Saturday, prospective Mar-a-Lago guests were asked to spend $1 million to reserve a seat...While previous second-term presidents have held fundraisers for their parties, the nature, timing, location, and price tag of Trump's dinner all raise flags for experts. 'I can't recall a sitting president in the first weeks of his administration asking for millions of dollars in fundraising', says Don Moynihan, a professor of public policy at the University of Michigan. 'The concern is less about fundraising and more about access and influence...People hoping to get favorable treatment view it in their interest to donate money to Trump. (Excerpts:) "...companies are likely to be much quicker in handing tariffs off to consumers this time than they were last time because many companies have already eaten as deeply into their profit margins as they were willing to in order to initially avoid passing tariffs off and losing market share. (This is one of the big factors that I've said is different this time than with the first and much smaller tariff wars.) As consumers became more willing to pay the increases as being inevitable, some companies may have adjusted their margins back up, and are making bigger overall profits because those margins are applied to much larger costs of goods sold. But, if they had the ability to do that and not lose market share, they won't be so likely to hold off on doing it this time, now that they think the consumer is expecting to see inflation. The international trade network is designed like an intricate Jenga tower with a foundation of just a few wooden pieces holding up a vast and seemingly infinite cathedral. However, pull just one of those base pieces and the entire edifice collapses. Globalism relies on forced interdependency between nations, so that every country needs something from every other country in order to survive. No single nation is allowed to rely on its own resources and production [We here at our mini-homestead do! Living outside the box!] As noted, that's what they call 'protectionism'. - Third, a few days ago, I was taking in a documentary about Europe, and in the documentary they played a song, "First We Take Manhattan, Then We Take Berlin", by Leonard Cohen. I'm not a Cohen fan by any means, but this song (which I had never heard before) really piqued my attention. DYOR to find out more about the song (its lyrics and audios of it are easy to find online). But that line, "First We Take Manhattan, Then We Take Berlin", is repeated 6 times in the song! Peoples' interpretations of what it means are aplenty, but I thought, "Well, they've got Manhattan now, ie Trump." I don't know the ins and outs of Trump's business dealings, but, imo, Trump Tower, in a sense, exemplifies his persona, and its address is: 725 Fifth Avenue, in Midtown Manhattan. - Fourth, back in 2019 I read this article and listened to the 52.03 min vid prophecy from David Wilkerson which comes with it. At exactly 2.03 minutes into the video, David states, "It's going to start in GERMANY!!!" After that he says it will "spread to Japan, and finally to the U.S." As the old saying goes, there's many a slip 'twixt cup and lip, but in seriously considering the past, present and the prophesied future, I'm offering this item as a totally must-read-and-view!

> Saying Goodbye to Benjamin Netanyahu Is Long Overdue - Give Miriam Adelson her $100 million back and tell her to go home" - Very forthright! Excellent exposé!

(Excerpts:) "President Donald Trump's address to Congress and the nation on Tuesday night was remarkably devoid of any mention of why the United States continues to both enable and be complicit in the Ukrainian conflict with Russia as well as with the war crimes that are being committed by the state of Israel against nearly all its neighbors on a daily basis... It should also be noted that Israel holds thousands of Palestinian prisoners whose fate is evidently of no concern to Donald Trump while the Israeli "world's most moral army" has continued to kill numerous Palestinians even while the ceasefire was allegedly in place without a squeak coming out of Washington just as it has also been killing Lebanese and Syrians...why is the leadership of the US from both principal parties reluctant to cut the tie that binds Washington to the criminal apartheid enterprise that has illegally occupied and now hides in a place once called Palestine?...much of the corruption of American institutions by Israel has to do with Jewish money which has influenced the shift of foreign policy views of both major US political parties. In the recent election, Jewish casino billionaire Mirian Adelson reportedly gave Trump $100 million and in exchange he promised to permit Israeli annexation of the Palestinian West Bank, which is currently proceeding. Beyond that buying of favors and the accompanying semi-overt takeover of the United States, there should be serious suspicions about possible hidden "covert actions" undertaken by Israel and its agents...Congress and the White House run in fear of the wrath of Zion, so it would appear, and no one is willing to do anything about it even when the depth and intensity of Israeli spying against the United States becomes evident, as has taken place with Jonathan Pollard in the 1980s and Jeffrey Epstein more recently, with the Epstein papers still being covered up! [US Attorney General Pam Bondi says "ISRAELI national security" information will be redacted from Epstein files:

https://www.winterwatch.net/2025/03/pam-bondi-says-israeli-national-security-inf ormation-will-be-redacted-from-epstein-files/J...In my humble opinion Israel should be treated as an enemy or at a minimum as a state that is dangerous to have any association with. That is because it uses its immense power inside the United States establishment as well as with many other nations in Europe, Oceania and North America to incite for wars that bring no benefit to any country that allows them to influence or distort policy...Far from being anyone's 'best friend' or 'greatest ally' or being a democracy as the US media and congress constantly claim, Israel's government does not even appear to value the lives of some Jews.":

- > •• "Data centres What data is that then?" Dig. Dig deeper. Then keep on digging! Excellent reporting!

(Excerpts:) "Everyone from Musk on down is telling you we need to build huge data centers for Al...But why? What data are they talking about? There is no exponential increase in expected data over the next decade, and if there is some increase, it will just be these machines learning what we already know. But our brains can already store what we need to know without plugging into sockets, so what's this all about?...most of this is just the next-level conjob, the latest boondoggle. They need something to tax you for and not deliver and this is the latest thing. It is getting harder to fool people with military spending, so I guess they will transfer some of that to this AI hoax...Trump is doing some good things like jettison DEI, get boys out of girls' sports, close the border, and so on, but that is starting to just look like sugar frosting on an acid Mordor cake...as Trump was speaking to Congress, Blackrock was buying the Panama Canal ports and 41 other major ports around the world from Hong Kong company C. K. Hutchison. This is being sold in the media as the canal passing from China to the US, but it isn't. These are private companies, so Blackrock ownership is not the same as US ownership. The citizens of the US won't see a penny and may be underwriting the sale somehow. It is bad news regardless, since the last thing the world needs is to see any more companies being gobbled up by Blackrock. The Blackrock / Vanguard / Fidelity / StateStreet monster now owns most of the world, being a multi-headed hydra of the trillionaire families. They created these investment groups to hide behind, since they are not required to list actual owners, but of course it is the Phoenician Navy: the Rockefellers / Rothschilds / Vanderbilts / Stuarts / Stanleys /Cohens / Morgans / etc. Of course they already owned all the ports of the world, which have been theirs for 4000 years, but this just confirms it. They aren't hiding very well. I would say they aren't hiding the monopoly very well, either, since only a fool would believe all these giant investments groups aren't linked and aren't hiding the same 100 families.": https://tapnewswire.com/2025/03/06/ai-data-centres-what-data-is-that-then/ - also found at this link: https://mileswmathis.com/data.pdf

> Imagine the outrage if Putin or Trump had suddenly cancelled elections they looked like losing because "they weren't going to be fair". Well something similar has just happened in Romania and the European Court of Human Rights has endorsed Romania's right to cancel elections.

"Romania – The first 'post-election' democracy?"

(Excerpts:) "This anti-election narrative is growing outside of Romania, too. Ukraine, of course, hasn't had any elections in years either. They also outlawed certain political parties, religions and television channels. Meanwhile, laundering billions of dollars/pounds/euros through the Ukrainian government to boost the bottom line of arms manufacturers is considered 'defending democracy'...To a smaller extent, nine local elections across the UK have been 'postponed' for at least a year for unknown reasons. This is not about controlling the result because they could accomplish the same thing by just rigging it. We know they rig elections all the time. No, this isn't about controlling the votes; it's about controlling the language. Taking words and tearing them away from their old-fashioned definitions. Even inverting those meanings." - And there is more chicanery to come!—To the tearing down of Christ in order to make way for the Antichrist! All things change, but Jesus never! "Jesus Christ [THE WORD of GOD!] is the same yesterday, today, and forever." (Heb.13:8) Know your God and be strong by knowing The Word! (About this article, tapnewswire said:) "Seems an off-the-wall forecast, but certainly some food for thought. His prediction triggered something for me. Turkey probably has the biggest European army now. A short read. Can anyone categorically refute this?" - I agree that it's definitely food for thought, which is why I'm posting it. Imo, Turkey is, imo, habitually cagey about playing both sides: In NATO, criticising NATO; pretending to be a peacemaker, siding with HTS in the overthrow of Syria; and there are other examples galore:

"We want international protection," Syrian minorities chanted near Russia-operated Khmeimim Air Base, demanding the world save them from the HTS-led sectarian killing. 532 Alawite civilians killed; Christian minorities also targeted. Is HTS thinking, "If Israel got away with genocide (and continues, with the USA's and others' supplies of weapons and praise) without ANYone lifting a finger to prevent them, why can't we get on with our killfest"? "Deliver [us] from the workers of iniquity, and save [us] from bloody men." (Psa.59:2)

(Intro:) "Dr Carrie Madej was an Internal Medicine Specialist in Georgia with 20 years in practice when she began to speak out against the lockdowns and the forced injections during the COVID PSYOP. Then, she ended-up in a plane crash and she was severely injured. She kept speaking up after that but then, she took some time off. Now, she's back with James Grundvig in one of the final episodes of his podcast, Unrestricted Warfare to talk about Neural Dust and the DARPA's work to connect pilots, soldiers, jet fighters, submarines, missile defense systems, etc with a Brain-Computer Interface... They literally want to make every shooter connected to every biosensor... Moreover, there is zero consent being offered for any of this, which are basic Human Rights violations and Crimes Against Humanity. The main reason why she chose to put herself out there was because she had attended some meetings, back in 2013 and '14, where people talked about their intention of using this self-assembling nano technology, purely to control and to spy-on people for predictive Predictive Policing. As she tells James, here, 'This was not about the health and well-being of anybody. So, and if you look at all the research out there and you look at what governments are saying, you know, Klaus Schwab, "It'll change who you are." That's what he says! And so, we have to look at who's behind the programming? Who's doing this?

Technology's not bad, but you have to learn that it's a tool and it's in the hands of those that do not have goodwill for humanity, at all. So this is why we should put a moratorium on all of this, right now, before going forward. Plus, where's the consent? I see no consent with any of this, right now.' The other reason she has come forward, to the detriment of her career and of possible threats to her life is that she is a very devout Christian and because she believes that our enemy is not just diabolical but literally Satan and that demonic entities that humanity does not possess any other technology to combat the genocidal attacks of the Globalists, besides faith in God – or better yet, Salvation by Jesus Christ...Dr Madej is an extremely intelligent woman and an extraordinary human being and this is very important information!":

(Excerpts:) "Let's bring some clarity to the chaos that has flared up again in Syria: On Thursday evening, remnants of the former Assad army—disbanded after the regime's collapse last December and scattered to coastal cities—launched a coordinated attack on the forces of the new Syrian regime, led by Ahmed al-Shara (also known as Abu Muhammad al-Julani). Several members of the new Syrian government's security forces were killed, while others were abducted. By Friday morning, as large contingents of government gunmen arrived, the fighting escalated further. Then, the jihadists of the al-Shara government began what many had long anticipated: a massacre targeting the Alawite community, which is closely associated with the Assad regime. Reports in Syria of no fewer than 2,400 Alawite civilians being massacred in coastal cities by the armed forces of the new Syrian regime... One of HTS' own members, identifying himself as Muhammad Abu Obaidah, speaks about the severity of the massacres committed today. The fighter, with tears in his eyes, says that HTS has gone too far, and that he calls on any human being with honor and dignity to reject killing and oppression. He then addresses Jolani and HTS' Military Command: 'Does our religion command us to kill innocent civilians in their homes? Did the Prophet permit us to drag them from their homes, and kill them in cold blood?'... The Syrian regime forces killed also this Greek Orthodox Christian, Father Gregory Bishara of Baniyas church...Al Jazeera, hailed as 'the champion of Arab human rights', has been silent on the massacre of Christians and Alawites in Syria by the Sunni jihadist gangs of the Jolani government over the past two days. It's not about Arabs they care about - it's about the Sunni Muslim brotherhood agenda that they promote!...And this is how the west is rewarding a blood thirsty regime that is busy right now massacring over 2000 civilians: 'UK lifts restrictions on Syria's central bank and other entities in landmark move...in a sign of warming relations'.":

- >  "New study finds butterflies are disappearing from the US at a 'catastrophic' rate" Comment from self-sufficiency consultant Peter G.: With butterflies on the decline in the US, it parallels the rapidly declining honey bee population. Sadly, the number one cause of these drastic drop in numbers is from the use of pesticides. The non-thinking, industrial-level farming techniques, that take no thought for the delicate ecosystems that play a major role in the stability of the environment, are destroying the balance of nature. The neonicotinoids used to protect crops from pests are also killing both bees and butterflies, which play a major role in pollinating crops and supporting the cycle of life as we know it. Due to these senseless and mismanagement practices, the American bee industry has begun importing bee packages each year, from countries such as New Zealand, in order to maintain bee population numbers for at least as long as a season, prior to the indiscriminate proliferation of pesticide bombardments, where many bees are poisoned and colonies collapse.":

"West-Backed Jihadists In Syria Massacre Over 1000 Alawite & Christian Men, Women & Children" - Includes 6 short vids.

(Excerpts:) "After several days of radical Sunni Islamist militants targeting religious minorities in Syria for mass killings, mainly in coastal areas, the mainstream media has belatedly begun to cover it (as the killings are growing to the point of getting too hard to ignore). Some correspondents estimated that there are thousands dead and wounded, mostly Alawites but also Syrian Christians among them, as post-Assad Syria unravels under Hayat Tahrir al-Sham's (HTS) Jolani. 'The death toll from two days of clashes between Syrian security forces and loyalists of ousted President Bashar Assad and revenge killings that followed has risen to more than 1,000, a war monitoring group said Saturday, making it one of the deadliest acts of violence since Syria's conflict began 14 years ago,' The Associated Press reports. The jihadists, which include foreign fighters as well as ruling HTS members, in some cases are simply going into the homes of non-Sunnis and massacring whole families. The terrorists haven't been shy about uploading their killings on the internet as well as in livestreams. Men, women, children, and even babies are being brutally murdered.":

(Description:) "On this episode of Going Underground, we speak to Clare Daly, former Member of the European Parliament for Dublin and Co-Host of the I4C Trouble podcast. She discusses the announcement by Ireland's Foreign Minister that moves will be made to relax rules on deploying troops abroad and potentially to Ukraine, the EU and UK's announcement of a 'Coalition of the Willing' for Ukraine which echoes the run-up to the Iraq War, the plans for Europe to trim down its welfare state to build a 'warfare state' as the EU ramps up the drive for war with Russia, the total capture of the European Union's institutions by the military-industrial complex, the moves to make warhawk Kaja Kallas the fully-fledged Foreign Minister for the European Union, the European Union living in a complete media bubble and EU officials being completely 'brain dead', Europe being completely excluded as the US and Russia mend relations, the EU's subservience to the United States and inability to break out of it, the scale of the economic crisis and poverty in the European Union which is ignored, the silencing of dissenting views across the EU against those opposing the Ukraine proxy war, the EU's complicity in the Gaza genocide and the EU's human rights rhetoric having zero credibility, Vice President J.D. Vance's criticism of Europe-wide censorship, and much more.")

(Excerpted quotes from the video:) "Europe has been on a military bend for a long number of years now...they're talking about €800 billion on defence, they've even come out and said that Europe has to get used to trimming down its welfare budget...people would much prefer to see that money spent on things to make them safe like a roof over their head and enough food on the table to deal with the devastating cost of living crisis that these people caused with their ridiculous response to an involvement in NATO's incursion on Russia's border and tragically using Ukraine in that aim...they seem to be desperate in doing everything they can to make sure there's some sort of war going or even getting worse. • "Von der Leyen: ReArm Europe could be foundation for a European defence union" - War is business. BIG business!

(Excerpts:) "The unanimous support this week for the ReArm Europe, an 800 billion euro defence package, could be the foundation for a European defence union, European Commission (EC) President Ursula von der Leyen said on March 9. Von der Leyen was speaking on the occasion of the coming 100th day on March 11 of the 2024-2029 EC that she heads. 'We will drive the ReArm Europe plan forward with full force...The idea behind it is: We must unleash the full potential in the face of concrete threats. And if we can team up with other like-minded countries, such as the UK, Norway or Canada, the potential is even greater.'...The upcoming huge investments in Europe's next generation of military equipment and security infrastructure can trigger a powerful tailwind for important industries, Von der Leyen said. 'Just think of the fast-tracking of the digitalisation, and modernisation of our transport networks. Think of Al applications, quantum computing, secure communication. Think of key technologies like satellite networks, autonomous vehicles and robotics. All of this is on one hand important for Europe's defence but equally important for Europe's competitiveness. SMEs across our Union – we have 2500 of them in the defence supply chain – will be at the heart of this transformation,' she said.":

- "The EU's leadership is now a global threat The bloc's out of control elites can't solve problems, so they keep creating new ones"

(Excerpts:) "The European Union's bureaucratic dysfunction cannot be ignored. For over 15 years, top EU positions have been assigned based on two criteria: incompetence and corruption...Much of the rhetoric about European rearmament is little more than posturing. Brussels' calls for militarization are designed to generate media attention rather than produce tangible results. Yet, constant war-mongering can have real consequences. The EU public is being conditioned to accept lower living standards and increased military spending under the guise of countering the 'Russian threat'. The fact that this narrative is gaining traction among ordinary Europeans is a worrying development...The bloc's strategy, therefore, is simple: prolong the current situation for as long as possible. This is because European leaders have no idea how to maintain their positions if peace with Russia is restored. Over the past two decades, Western Europe has consistently failed to solve any of its pressing problems. The Ukraine crisis is simply the most dangerous manifestation of this longstanding dysfunction.": https://www.rt.com/news/613949-eus-leadership-is-now-global-threat/

(Excerpts:) "The crisis in Ukraine is not just a regional conflict—it's the epicenter of a global power struggle orchestrated by a shadowy network of oligarchs, mafias, and intelligence agencies. This is not hyperbole; it's the alarming reality of what's unfolding in real-time...The roots of this crisis stretch back to the late 13th century, when the Venetian Empire laid the groundwork for modern predatory capitalism. The Venetian Mafia, the enforcement arm of the Venetian Doge, became the prototype for global mafia organizations. Today, the world is carved into crime territories controlled by a dizzying array of mafias, all operating under the umbrella of the Khazarian Mafia. This network includes international crime syndicates, governmental crime gangs, and corporate crime outfits, all shielded by institutions like the CIA and FBI...Ukraine is not just a country; it's a treasure trove of natural resources—land, water, oil, gas, rare earth minerals, and more. It's no wonder that the Khazarian oligarchs from Russia, the United States, Europe, and Ukraine itself are locked in a deadly struggle for control. Each faction has its own geopolitical aims and financial objectives, often putting them in direct opposition.":

(Excerpts:) "The government of Iran has issued a 'Final Warning' to the United States and to Israel concerning the likely pending attack by those countries, against Iran. The Iran government said 'An attack on Iran is tantamount to the destruction of all US bases in the region and the destruction of all Israeli nuclear facilities.' This comes just days after US President Donald Trump sent a letter to the Ayatolla Khameinei seeking to engage Iran in nuclear negotiations. According to Trump, the letter made clear that if Iran does not enter negotiations, it may get bombed. Iran REJECTED Trump's reported offer, saying Iran will not negotiate while it is being aggressively sanctioned and threatened by the United States. > Note: Product of the USA? Hardly! - Short vid, KURC. Comment from Peter G. on these vids: "'Greenwashing' is a term used when falsifying organic farming for the sake of sales, and unfortunately, China is guilty of such. The USDA reports that false documents and ratings are being used on products which claim to be organic when they are not. Organic status has become a very loose term to help bolster a company's image and bottom line, and all in the name of natural farming methods and standards. Adherence to strict rules and regulations used to be the basis for organic product certification, but lately this has been abused and misused. As an example of the farming practices in parts of Southern China, I was shocked to personally discover, whilst living there, that the white paper floating around vegetable gardens was actually toilet paper, in that raw sewage was being used as fertilizer! Local farmers were using human faeces and urine from the overburdened runoff of nearby septic tanks as an alternative to expensive fertilizers. These compromises to claim organic status undermine the very reason for the standards and certifications consumers demand. Blatant and fake documentation coming from one of the world's largest food producers is fakery at its best. Deceiving for the dollar where organic is far from a true representation of the foods grown. One would have to guestion whether anything labeled 'organic' and made in China would need further scrutiny when selecting foods at the supermarket." - Which is why we don't eat anything from there!:

11 March

> This week I want to close with a thread that I've been wanting to pursue for a while. In previous KUs I've posted many items that deal with deception—its motivation, its conceptions, its weapons, its fabrications, its realisations. In the cornerstone Endtimes chapter, Matthew 24, it mentions four times of Jesus warning against deception.

Let's look at the word "dia". In Arabic and Sanskrit, "dia" is a variant of "Diya", which means "light, shining, radiance". In the Lembaama language, "dia" means "love". "Dia/Dhia" is also the Irish word for "god". One of the meanings of "dia" as a prefix means "completely".

Imo, the diadem of deception is identity theft, and that the ultimate perpetrator of that crime will be Satan in the form of the Antichrist, who will attempt to steal (before the whole world) the identity of Christ and crown his dia-demonic self as the saviour of the world, to culminate his ruse to bring his Luficerian brand of "light" to all, shining his (fake!) love as the dia-god (of this world)!

"For the mystery of [this] iniquity doth already work" (2Thes.2:7a) and "the god of this world hath blinded the minds" (from 2Cor.4:4) and every conceivable sense of humankind in order to make them senseless, lose their senses, and/or cause them to be unable to make sense of it all—that is unless someone is brave enough to allow their eyes to be opened, and to be turned from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God (see Acts 26:18).

Here are some items I've collected for this posting, which, imo, underscore the layered lengths of lies that beguile the world, and that the attack on our eyes is as virulent as it was back on that day in the Garden of Eden (after Satan's seductive speech to Eve to eat of the forbidden fruit), "when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes". (Gen.3:6a)
