Chapter 18 - Mortal Combat with the Serpent. Note the use of the word "glib", in verse 6, meaning "insincere, shallow", which are excellent indicators of Satan-induced speech! Spotted by Adam and Eve in his now-fallen state, the serpent rises up to actually attempt to kill Adam & Eve! But God intervenes and casts him abroad! And throughout the world, he flaunted himself—both in male, *female, and mixed forms—as something to be in awe of! See: "Snake Gods and Goddesses: 19 Serpent Deities from Around the World" -

<https://historycooperative.org/snake-gods-and-goddesses/>

In Nordic Mythology, snakes were viewed as symbols of death, destruction, and pain, especially when referenced to the Midgard Serpent, also known as the World Serpent who when risen, would bring about the end of the world. In Mesoamerican culture, snakes were worshiped as gods, as seen in Aztec religion when worshiping Quetzalcoatl, who was a large-feathered serpent, as well as in other cultures such as the Inca. This god-like creature, otherwise known as the Feathered Snake, was thought to bring rain and gave maize (corn) to the people.

Throughout millenia, snakes have been seen differently by various cultures, spanning opposites such as immortality and death, male and female, deity and demon, circle and line, killer and healer, the highest wisdom and the deepest subconscious. This underscores the fact that, currently, Satan is the god and deceiver of the whole world, as explained in Matthew 4:8-9, 2Corinthians 4:4, and Revelation 12:9! "Again, the devil taketh Him [Jesus] up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth Him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; and saith unto Him, 'All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.' In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, Who is the image of God, should shine unto them. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him."

1 WHEN the accursed serpent saw Adam and Eve, it swelled its head, stood on its tail, and with eyes blood-red, did as if it would kill them.

2 It made straight for Eve, and ran after her; while Adam standing by, wept because he had no stick in his hand wherewith to smite the serpent, and knew not how to put it to death.

3 But with a heart burning for Eve, Adam approached the serpent, and held it by the tail; when it turned towards him and said unto him,

4 "O Adam, because of thee and of Eve, I am slippery, and go upon my belly." Then by reason of its great strength, it threw down Adam and Eve and pressed upon them, as if it would kill them.

5 But God sent an angel, who threw the serpent away from them, and raised them up.

6 Then the Word of God came to the serpent, and said unto it, "In the first instance I made thee glib, and made thee to go upon thy belly; but I did not deprive thee of speech.

7 Now, however, be thou dumb; and speak no more, thou and thy race; because in the first place, has the ruin of My creatures happened through thee, and now thou wishest to kill them."

8 Then the serpent was struck dumb, and spake no more.

9 And a wind came to blow from heaven by command of God that carried away the serpent from Adam and Eve, threw it on the sea shore, and it landed in India.

Perhaps some may wonder, as did I, that since God threw the serpent off to India, how did it make its way back to haunt Adam and Eve (as we will see in the ensuing chapters in this study)? Is it because the snake had (and still has) a spiritual existence, and so wasn't bound to STAY in India? I posed this question to Stephen Strutt, who sent me the following response (for more insights on this, see pages 65-66 of Stephen Strutt's book "Eden Insights — The Lost Books of Adam and Eve"):

"There would indeed appear to be something true about India, which just so happens to be the Snake Capital in the world. This is a very big topic, and it is both physical and spiritual. People worship snakes in India, but since when has Satan been limited to being in just one country? Although he did get 'thrown out', he obviously found a way back, and normally that is through the great disobedience of others. Strangely, I have just been re-reading my book "Secrets of Enoch Insights", and this time, you know what really stuck out to me? Adam and Eve's continuing to disobey and think that they knew better than God, after being kicked out of the garden of Eden. As we know, 'disobedience' invites the attacks of Satan. God told Adam and Eve to stay in the Cave of Treasures, but they kept trying to sneak back into the Garden of Eden, and that is when Satan kept showing up to be a nuisance."

Stephen also sent me this article (see link below). So, there's plenty for us to chew and meditate on here until next week, when we continue this study!

(Excerpts:) "[Regarding] Donald Trump's repeatedly articulated intention in recent months to seize/incorporate/annex Canada to the U$A, Inc. as the 51st State...Canada is a subject of the British Crown. The British King is also the King of Canada and sits on the Throne of Canada:

Canada is under the British Crown. It is under the British monarchy, and legally is the Monarchy of Canada: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Monarchy\_of\_Canada

Perhaps you see where this is headed. If the U$A, Inc. accedes to the British Commonwealth, will King Charles, as the titular and de jure head of the British Commonwealth, potentially employ his royal prerogative and join the two Commonwealths, the Monarchy of Canada and the U$A, Inc. into one North America Commonwealth; thereby effectively dissolving the existing international border, and folding the major portion of the North American continent into the British Commonwealth under British Crown auspices??—Which, by the way, has been a major policy objective of the British Crown and the City of London for more than 400 years. That was the founding vision behind the first British colony at Jamestown-Virginia in 1607, and clearly is still an objective of the British Crown, or else King Charles would not still be talking in March of 2025 about the U$A, Inc. joining the British Commonwealth...if the massive Federal Corporation, in its almost terminal bankruptcy throes, decides to join the British Commonwealth, in order to advance the larger objective of establishing the Technate of America [DYOR on what that is; which I posted about in a previous KU.]—probably paying the British Crown a very generous/hefty trillion dollar finders fee (ahem) in the process—then that's what will happen! You are not on the board of directors...King Charles is on the board of directors. Donald Trump is on the board of directors. Mark Carney is on the board of directors...Mark Carney has just recently been made Canadian Prime Minister. He's a very BIG MONEY man. Tens and even hundreds of trillion$ of dollars are in play if the Monarchy of Canada and the U$A, Inc. are to be joined territorially and politically. The laws of war only ever seem to be forgotten when it is Israel violating them. Israel and its genocide cheerleaders are claiming Israel's air strike on the Nasser Hospital in Gaza last night – which killed several patients and staff – was justified because a Hamas politician was being treated there for injuries from an earlier Israeli strike...Israeli prime minister Benjamin Netanyahu recently spent several days in the Hadassah Ein Kerem Hospital in Jerusalem for a prostate operation. Had Hamas hit the hospital, can one imagine Israel and its supporters – or western politicians and media – accepting that as legitimate grounds for a military attack? The question doesn't even need asking. The only reason it is okay for Israel to attack a Palestinian hospital, killing Palestinian civilians, to assassinate a Palestinian politician is because the western political and media class are out-and-out anti-Palestinian racists. The more that China prepares, the greater the risk that Beijing decides to shift without notice from drills to war. Taiwan relies on imports for 96% of its power, through foreign oil, coal and natural gas. A blockaded island would have to rely on stockpiled energy imports, submit to Beijing, or go dark. With a blockade, China could probe Taiwan's defenses while trying to suffocate its economy and undermine its determination to resist. Italian and Scottish researchers claim they've discovered 'a vast underground city' under the pyramids. Using Synthetic Aperture Radar."

Comments from KUser who sent this to me: "Synthetic Aperture Radar (SAR) is a radar technology used to create high-resolution images of landscapes by emitting radar pulses and processing the echoes that bounce back. It can operate in various conditions, including darkness and through clouds, making it valuable for applications like environmental monitoring and military reconnaissance. The researcher says that the radar picks up vibrations from the structures underneath the surface? One thing's for sure, there are many structures around the world that have mathematical properties to their structures and there is evidence of pre dynastic megalithic patterns in most of the structures around the world. The similarities are not coincidental. Even the old Japanese emperor castle in Kyoto has the same type of megalithic architecture as in Machu Picchu Peru, northern India, and many temples throughout Asia. And it's always at the base, and newer architecture is evident on top, ie the modern castle. There is evidence of a cataclysmic event or period where possible technology could have been lost. The Bible has documented such an event, but who's to say it didn't happen before that? Not so sure about the structures beneath the pyramid, but it could be entirely possible. Some say the pyramids and other temples around the world seem to resonate with sound, and certain frequencies signals maybe? Energy device? In this Redacted vid, it explains the SAR technology and says they are 5 x 80m wide and go 2km below the pyramids. (Excerpts:) "An all-loving, never-angry Christian God has been adopted by many American pulpits [and Christian pulpits worldwide!] as TRUTH languishes in the streets waiting for some brave pulpiter to re-introduce to our American society a sin-hating, justice loving King of Kings. For those of you who might be wondering Jesus actually upped the ante on judging. Far from banishing judgment he made it personal. The JUDGE NOT Christians fail to tell you the whole story. He made it personal regarding our own behavior. Here is what the ONE who died for our sins actually said regarding judgment. 'Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye meet, it shall be measured to you again. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, "Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye"; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.' The admonition of Jesus was not to stop judging...but to stop judging hypocritically. Once you clean up your own life then you can effectively clean up the life of another man. Do not criticize someone for exhibiting the same behaviors in which you are engaging. We can only see clearly after seeing the inconsistencies in our own lives...Pointing out that a person's behavior is wrong is not being judgmental. It is one of the greatest forms of love. I often hear people say that we should 'share the Truth in love'. My friends, sharing the TRUTH regarding harmful, sinful behavior IS love. It is the BEHAVIOR that is sin. We have a duty to point it out. James 4:17 Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin. Pointing out sinful behavior is TRAINING. The Scriptures tell us to 'Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.' Training requires direction, correction, and discipline. It is SO important that the Bible tells us 'whom the Lord loves He disciplines...' Saying 'NO' to immoral behavior was God's idea. If we love our family and friends, then we will tell them the TRUTH." - Amen!:

(Intro:) "When the United States entered WWI in April 1917, the fledgling pharmaceutical industry had something they had never had before: a large supply of human test subjects. During the war years of 1918 to 1919, the US Army ballooned to 6 million men, of which 2 million were sent overseas. The Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research took advantage of this new pool of human guinea pigs to conduct vaccine experiments." - *It wasn't a Spanish Flu! (Lk.3:9)

"There's no use trying to patch up a decadent civilization. The tree of life is not bearing good fruit. It must be cut down and burned. Way must be made for something better. No half-way measures will suffice. The diseased limb is putrid. Nothing but the surgeon's knife will answer...The axe is laid unto the roots of the trees. No patching. No mending. No makeshifts. Nothing will answer but a new life, a new beginning, a new order of things." (William Thurston Brown, 1901):

(Excerpt from the first paragraph of the Introduction:) "Most people have heard of Jesus Christ, considered by Christian followers to be the Messiah who lived over 2000 years ago. But very few people have ever heard of Sabbatai Zevi, who declared himself to be the Messiah in 1666. He amassed a following of over one million believers, half the world's Jewish population during the 17th century, by proclaiming that redemption was available through acts of sin.":

>  "What is True Beauty?"

(Excerpt:) "Beauty, Biblically speaking, is not the geometrical pleasantness of a face, a figure, or a personality. It is not defined by individuals or by cultures. Beauty comes from something deeper than a skin-deep veneer and goes even deeper than the bones, the cells, or the DNA. Beauty is the radiance of a woman rightly ordered unto her God. It is the light of a soul that fears the Lord, submits to His Word, and delights in her God-given feminine design. True beauty is not a perfectly contoured face or a flawless figure—it is not cleavage or collagen. It is not found in the mirror or on the makeup aisle. It is not shaped by fashion, fame, filters, or fawning onlookers. The world shouts that beauty is skin, sex, and spotlight. God says female beauty is feminine holiness." - And not just women, imo, but men who fear the Lord, submit to His Word and delight in their God-given purpose and mission here on earth are also beautiful!

As far as right now, Erdogan has always been very outspoken in words, but deeds have been otherwise. See:

<https://tradingeconomics.com/turkey/exports/israel> [In that link, note how the Turkey-to Israel imports were way down in 2024 in that link. It appears not to be so palsy-walsy between those two, since they both have now outrightly started fighting over Syria?!] I am not sure if they fully login to those stats as to how much business between the countries is really going on. People in Turkey have been upset with their government doing so much business with Israel, but the economy is so bad here, I don't think they really mind. Erdogan stands for family values, against this whole LGBTQ+ madness, which, no doubt, upsets Europe. He will arm the new Syria to the teeth with the latest weaponry, which is very good for business. [Note that Turkey has the 2nd largest standing army in NATO, and the 8th largest standing army in the world.] I think Israel is just so paranoid about anything, but Turkey is very strong; they stopped Russia from taking over Libya, and their Turkish-made drones stopped Russia's march on Kiev. The Turkish Bayraktar drones are now in demand by so many countries. A united Turkey and Syria would be a powerful foe against Israel. The opposition in Turkey were more friendly with Assad [Both Hafez al-Assad and his son, the

I hope this helps cast some more light on the situation, but as we can see, all this and more factors into why Israel is getting concerned! *By the way, the Alevis of Turkey is a fascinating subject, especially the ones in Antioch.:

> 🌟 "We Are All Amalekites"

(Excerpts:) "Israeli leaders constantly refer to the Palestinian people as being 'Amalekites'. But their Jewish supremacy goes even further than that. Benjamin Netanyahu and his fellow Zionists constantly refer to the Palestinian people (the 'Amalekites') as 'animals' and 'subhuman' that can be mercilessly tortured and killed with moral and civil impunity. The Amalekites during the days of Moses were the descendants of Esau, the son of Isaac and brother of Jacob—so they were biologically the nephews and nieces of Jacob (renamed 'Israel' by Jehovah). The point being, the Old Testament Scriptures make it clear that the Amalekites were people (human beings)—even kinsmen of the Israelites. The God of Abraham and Moses never regarded the Amalekites as anything other than people—wicked people, but people nonetheless. In fact, God dealt with the Amalekites with great longsuffering and grace, waiting over 400 years before bringing divine judgment upon them, thus giving the people of Amalek time to turn from their wickedness and find mercy and forgiveness with God. Why? Because God loves mankind, as we are all made in His image, conceived with an immortal soul. God gave His only begotten Son to die for the sins of mankind—clearly meaning that all mankind possesses an eternal soul. The greatest-of-all Bible commentators, Matthew Henry (1662 – 1714), wrote in his commentaries regarding the Old Covenant wars of Israel: 'In dealing with the worst of enemies, the laws of justice and honour must be observed.' But the philosophy of the Donald Trump administration is that anyone can be designated as a Palestinian, meaning an Amalekite, undeserving of Natural or constitutional rights...Every time we hear a politician talk about Israel, they call it 'America's greatest friend and ally'. Really? What is their definition of friendship? Name one thing Israel has done FOR America. All Israel does is bleed America financially, morally, spiritually, culturally and politically—and drag America into its perpetual wars of aggression, which have ZERO national interests for the United States. [The US government is] regurgitating the Jewish supremacist/racist mantra of Benjamin Netanyahu and his fellow Zionists. Don't believe me? Listen to what this very influential Jewish rabbi recently said: 'It really doesn't matter if Donald Trump or Donald Duck wins the US elections. It really doesn't matter if Kamala Harris or Kermit the Frog wins. When it comes to international affairs, anything that impinges on the future of this world, Donald Trump, Kamala Harris have no freedom of choice. They become like puppets. And who pulls the strings of those puppets? We do. The Jewish people.' In other words, we are all Amalekites.": <https://chuckbaldwinlive.com/Articles/tabid/109/ID/4734/We-Are-All-Amalekites.aspx>

>  "The last chapter of the genocide - Now the whole world can see Israel for what it really is"

(Excerpts:) "The final chapter marks the end of Israeli lies. The lie of the two-state solution. The lie that Israel respects the laws of war that protect civilians. The lie that Israel bombs hospitals and schools only because they are used as staging areas by Hamas. The lie that Hamas uses civilians as human shields, while Israel routinely forces captive Palestinians to enter potentially booby-trapped tunnels and buildings ahead of Israeli troops. The lie that Hamas or Palestine Islamic Jihad (PIJ) are responsible — the charge often being errant Palestinian rockets — for the destruction of hospitals, United Nations' buildings or mass Palestinian casualties. The lie that humanitarian aid to Gaza is blocked because Hamas is hijacking the trucks or smuggling in weapons and war material. The lie that Israeli babies are beheaded or Palestinians carried out mass rape of Israeli women. The re-lie that 75 percent of the tens of thousands killed in Gaza were Hamas 'terrorists'. The lie that Hamas, because it was allegedly rearming and recruiting new fighters, is responsible for the breakdown of the ceasefire agreement...It is the final, blood-soaked push to drive the Palestinians from Gaza. No food. No medicine. No shelter. No clean water. No electricity. Israel is swiftly turning Gaza into a Dantesque cauldron of human misery where Palestinians are being killed in their hundreds and soon, again, in their thousands and tens of thousands, or they will be forced out never to return...Israel's message is unequivocal: Gaza will be uninhabitable. Leave or die...It will forever shatter the myth that we, or any Western nation, respect the rule of law or are the protectors of human rights, democracy and the so-called 'virtues' of Western civilization.":

By the time of Alexander's untimely death at age thirty-three in 323 BC, his vast empire extended from Macedonia to India, and included Palestine. Following Alexander's death, his generals, known as the Diadochi ('successors'), were unable to preserve the empire's unity, leading to its fragmentation. Various generals took control of different regions, ruling in the style of the old Persian satraps. In 323 BC Ptolemy assumed control of Egypt, marking the beginning of the Ptolemaic Empire.":

- Find out where fluoride comes from! - Short vid, KURC. Comment from Self-Sufficiency Consultant Peter G: It's like margarine, which was originally purposely designed and made to feed to turkeys and the meat industry. When they discovered that the turkeys would eat it (they had 100s of tons of margarine, packaged in drums in storage facilities and needed to do something with it), they refined and repackaged it, and sold it to humans in the supermarkets. To produce margarine, manufacturers begin with the cheapest oils—soy, corn, cottonseed or canola—and mix them with tiny metal particles, usually nickel oxide. The oil is then subjected to high temperatures. Next, soap-like emulsifiers and starch are squeezed into the mixture to give it a better consistency. The oil is yet again subjected to high temperatures (thousands of degrees) to get a chemical change to the structure of the fat which turns it into a solid. This turns it rancid and it needs to be steam-cleaned to remove its unpleasant odour. Margarine's natural colour, an unappetizing grey, is removed by bleach. Dyes and strong flavours must then be added to turn it yellow and make it resemble butter. [To "resemble"! See the deception!!] Finally, the mixture is compressed and packaged in blocks or tubs and sold as a "healthy food", which couldn't be any further from the truth!

(Excerpts:) "This marks a notable rise from the previous year and highlights a growing acceptance of euthanasia as a legal and cultural norm. Among these cases, 219 individuals were euthanized due to 'psychological disorders', a category that saw a striking 60% increase compared to 2023. This shift indicates a broadening interpretation of 'unbearable suffering', a key criterion under Dutch law...Supporting this data, a post on X from @CNKAlliance on March 24, 2025, noted that the 9,958 euthanasia reports included a minor—a 16- to 18-year-old boy with autism, anxiety, and depressive feelings—illustrating the inclusion of younger individuals in extreme circumstances...A November 2023 poll by Kieskompas, cited in the same article, found that 80% of nearly 200,000 Dutch respondents supported extending euthanasia to elderly individuals who feel their lives are complete, even without a terminal diagnosis. [!!!!!!]...The Netherlands' euthanasia statistics are not just a national story—they set a precedent for other countries grappling with similar policies. The Christian Post article speculated that if England and Wales adopted a comparable rate, approximately 33,917 individuals might be euthanized annually, based on population scaling—an estimate echoed on X by @CNKAlliance. As nations like Canada, Belgium, and parts of the U.S. expand their own assisted dying laws, the Dutch model offers both a blueprint and a cautionary tale."

>  "Benefits of Honey in Neurological Disorders" - I've posted previous times about honey, but can't pass up another one! Honey is truly supernatural! But to get those benefits, it has to be natural! Because not all honey is the same. Here's a comment from Peter G (Certified Apiarist and Self-Sufficiency Consultant) on what that means:

These studies are likely to be based on organic honey, as a lot of the supermarket-shelf honey is cut with corn syrup and other additives to prevent crystallization. Organic honey naturally crystallizes and this is a good way to determine whether or not you have quality, natural honey. Unfortunately, commercial honey producers use sugar in their hives to feed the bees and to produce honey, resulting in far less nutritional value than organic honey. It's always a good idea to source your honey from farmers markets and local beekeepers.:
