> Here's the 3rd installment of our study from the "The Lost Books of Adam and Eve" on the degrees and depths of deception Satan tried in order to tease, lure, deceive, beguile, seduce, distract, scare, manipulate, and even kill Adam and Eve after they had been sent out of the Garden! Key Updates 179 delved into Chapter 17, and Key Updates 180 delved into Chapter 18. Now, let's check out...

Chapter 27 - The Devil takes on the form of a beguiling light, replete with hosts singing loud praises so as to enthrall.

1. WHEN Satan, the hater of all good, saw how they continued in prayer, and how God communed with them, and comforted them, and how He had accepted their offering—Satan made an apparition. [This is a good reminder to "Pray without ceasing." (2Thes.5:17) and "Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving." (Col.4:2), because, imo, this was key in helping Adam and Eve escape this satanic attack, as we read below.]

2 He began with transforming his hosts; in his hands was a flashing fire, and they were in a great light. [We are warned of this in Scripture! "And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light." (2Cor.11:14)]

3 He then placed his throne near the mouth of the cave because he could not enter into it by reason of their prayers. And he shed light into the cave, until the cave glistened over Adam and Eve; while his hosts began to sing praises. [Satan couldn't enter in "by reason of their prayers"! That's how powerful prayer is! "We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not." (1Jn.5:18) "Jesus prayed, "I pray not that Thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that Thou shouldest keep them from the evil one." (Jn.17:15) But if we wander from outside the umbrella of God's protection, which shields us through obedience, then we may fall prey to false praises!]

4 And Satan did this, in order that when Adam saw the light, he should think within himself that it was a heavenly light [Beware of the "You are your god", "The truth is in yourself" etc. doctrines and false teachings!], and that Satan's hosts were angels; and that God had sent them to watch at the cave, and to give him light in the darkness, [Beware of illusionary illuminations!]

5 So that when Adam came out of the cave and saw them, and Adam and Eve bowed to Satan, then he would overcome Adam thereby, and a second time humble him before God. [That's Satan's goal: To get folks to bow down and worship him, so he can overcome them! And this is going to happen to the deluded and deceived, on a global scale! "And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, 'Who is like unto the beast? Who is able to make war with him?'" (Rev.13:4)]

6 When, therefore, Adam and Eve saw the light, fancying* it was real, they strengthened their hearts; yet, as they were trembling, Adam said to Eve: [This is what happens when people start to succumb to Satan's fantasies!]

7 "Look at that great light, and at those many songs of praise, and at that host standing outside that do not come in to us, do not tell us what they say, or whence they come, or what is the meaning of this light; what those praises are; wherefore they have been sent hither, and why they do not come in. [But due to already being in prayer, Adam was now starting to pick up some creepy vibes from the Devil's trick: the host could be heard but kept their distance; they hadn't disclosed their source and their purpose. A good reminder to always 1Jn.4:1! "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world."]

8 If they were from God, they would come to us in the cave, and would tell us their errand."

9 Then Adam stood up and prayed unto God with a fervent heart, and said: ["The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." (Jm.5:16b)] 10 "O Lord, is there in the world another god than Thou, who created angels and filled them with light, and sent them to keep us, who would come with them? 11 But, lo, we see these hosts that stand at the mouth of the cave; they are in a great light; they sing loud praises. If they are of some other god than Thou, tell me; and if they are sent by Thee, inform me of the reason for which Thou hast sent them." ["If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." (1Jn.1:10-11) Beware of imposters!] 12 No sooner had Adam said this, than an angel from God appeared unto him in the cave, who said unto him, "O Adam, fear not. This is Satan and his hosts; he wishes to deceive you as he deceived you at first. For the first time, he was hidden in the serpent; but this time he is come to you in the similitude of an angel of light; in order that, when you worshipped him, he might enthrall you, in the very presence of God."

13 Then the angel went from Adam, and seized Satan at the opening of the cave, and stripped him of the feint he had assumed, and brought him in his own hideous form to Adam and Eve; who were afraid of him when they saw him.
14 And the angel said to Adam, "This hideous form has been his ever since God made him fall from heaven. He could not have come near you in it; therefore did he transform himself into an angel of light."

15 Then the angel drove away Satan and his hosts from Adam and Eve, and said unto them, "Fear not; God who created you, will strengthen you." ["Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of My righteousness." (Isa.41:10)]

16 And the angel went from them.

17 But Adam and Eve remained standing in the cave; no consolation came to them; they were divided in their thoughts.

18 And when it was morning they prayed; and then went out to seek the garden. For their hearts were towards it, and they could get no consolation for having left it.

* &  &  — These are the 3 words that I wanted to dig deeper into to help me see a larger dimension as to what was going on!:

* fancying/fancy/fantasy: "Fancy" is a superficial or transient feeling of liking or attraction; it's a contraction of "fantasy"! "Fantasy" is the faculty or activity of imagining impossible or improbable things; an idea with no basis in reality; it originally comes from the Greek words (1) "phantazein" which means "make visible" and (2) "phantasia" which means "imagination, appearance"; from the 16th to the 19th centuries the Latinized spelling "phantasy" was also used. Bear in mind that the word "fantasy" has a connection to the word "phantom" through their shared root in the ancient Greek word "phantasmos", meaning "apparition" or "ghost"; the word "phantasm" originates from the Greek word "phantasmos" and, over time, the meaning of "phantasm" evolved to include not just literal apparitions but also the realm of imagination and unreal things. So, that's how the word "fancy/fantasy", as derivatives of "phantasm" and "phantasy", have theirs roots in "phantom"! "Surely every man walketh in a vain shew: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them." (Psa.39:6) The phrase "vain shew" is from the original Hebrew word "tselem". Although translated as "image" in the New Testament, used to describe Christ as the image of God (Colossians 1:15) and believers being conformed to the image of Christ (Romans 8:29), in Psa.39:6 it is referring to images such as idols or graven images, thus highlighting the contrast between the true image of God in humanity and the false images created by human hands. (See https://biblehub.com/hebrew/6754.htm for more information.) Beware of fancying the fantasies of phantoms!

 enthrall: This word, "enthrall" is closely related to the word above, in that it means to capture the fascinated attention of someone or something; to keep someone completely interested, spellbound. It's a form of "inthrall/in thrall", which means that if you are in thrall to someone or something, or in the thrall of someone or something, then that he, she, or it has a lot of power to control you—thus its correlation to the word "enslave". God, bless and help us not to fall for any dubious thrall, but to remain circumspect in You! "See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise." (Jer.29:8)

 feint: "Feint" means a mock blow or attack or movement in warfare, made in order to distract or deceive by drawing attention away from the point where one really intends to attack. This is a very important word to be aware of, because the spiritual war is unrelenting! And we who are armed with the Word of God rejoice in it! "In all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us! (Rom.8:37) Because the joy of the Lord is our strength! (See Neh.8:10b)

"Joy not only grounds you, but there is a blessing in weaponizing it! In the midst of trials and tribulations, it is often challenging to find a reason to rejoice. Yet, as I reflect upon the Scriptures, I am reminded time and again that joy is not merely a fleeting emotion but a powerful weapon in our spiritual arsenal. The Bible tells us in Nehemiah 8:10, 'The joy of the Lord is your strength.'":

> 🕵 In tandem with our ongoing study on deception, here are 3 KURCs sent to me today by Stephen Strutt, who had this to say about them: "Looks like eugenics on a big scale. So sad! 150,000,000 up to 500,000,000 people have died since COVID in China alone!! Official position: It is normal; nothing special is happening. So sad when governments simply do not care about their people." "How much has China's population decreased? Shocking! It explains many questions." - (Comment from Stephen:) "A MUST SEE. It would appear that CHINA has lost as much as 50% of its population. Was it COVID? Or was it emigration into the whole world? What has been the root cause?" (Description:) "China's population crisis is becoming more evident. Footage from Beijing and Shanghai shows deserted streets, empty shopping malls, and a struggling economy. While I've previously estimated it to be no more than 900 million—and later 800 million—the truth is far more shocking. Drawing from viewer insights and new analysis, I now believe China's actual population may be as low as 300–400 million. This isn't a sensational claim, but a sober examination of two critical factors: 1.) The Chinese Communist Party's decades-long manipulation of demographic data to project a false image of a massive consumer market, and 2.) the catastrophic.

• To wrap up this entry, here's a comment from Peter G:

"I preface the following comments with real-life experiences.

Firstly, one of the kindest, purest, dearest and most sincere people I've met in my life is a young Chinese girl named Claire—a most beautiful and lovely human being with the biggest heart and blessed with enduring unconditional love. Furthermore, I've had the privilege of working with and living near numerous kind-hearted Chinese who are in complete contrast to what I'm about to say next. In contrast: A lot of business practices in China include poor practices, such as distortion of the truth, lying, and misrepresentation to cover neglect of inferior products. It is not uncommon for regulation to be nonexistent and dishones in order to seal the deal, coupled with reckless abandon of integrity just to make a quick dollar with no regard for a future relationship. Moral and ethical standards can be compromised at the drop of a hat at the smell of money. It's a brutal game of whatever it takes to make a deal, and unfortunately, honorability and loyalty can be sacrificed in an instant. All of the above is considered fair game in business, and manipulation of statistics would be no surprise at all either."

Regarding the following posts, I would have liked very much to excerpt more, but due to time constraints I was not able to today. But I do hope you'll check out these posts, to some extent. > 💥 After four years of the most absent, most inept president in U.S. history, Biden handed Trump a big mess. It was probably intended. It gave Trump a landslide win to lead the U.S. into a place where empires die.

• "Trump's foreign policy moves starting to look like that of a desperate, dying empire - Gerald Celente, the legendary chief editor of the Trends Journal, once said: 'When all else fails they take you to war.'"

(Excerpts:) "Trump wants Western peacekeepers in Ukraine. That is a major snag for Putin, mostly because of Russia's history and distrust of Western countries like France and Britain (both have fought wars with Russia in the past -[Delites'-backed wars, which ended up almost but not going their way in the end, but they just won't stop, as it seems they are rabid about conquering Russia once and for all!]. Putin's idea of having the United Nations place peacekeepers in Ukraine is also stupid. How did that work out in Rwanda? The only way to solve the problem is to back away and let Russia and Ukraine fight it out. That will provide the only organic environment for a lasting peace, and even that may not last forever. But Russia is oh so close to achieving that goal, and that's why Putin doesn't want any part of Trump's 'peace' deal. He believes he can end the war by finishing off his opponent and then accomplish all of his goals, rather than 50 or 75 percent of them. Why would the victor in a war settle on the terms of the loser? This is essentially what Trump is asking Putin to do. Sorry, it doesn't work that way. Ukraine's leader, Zelensky, wants to keep fighting, so let him carry on and see how that works out for him. Sadly, it's becoming clear that the U.S. is losing influence in the world. The dollar is faltering. The debt keeps soaring. The economy is teetering. And our leaders are behaving like those running a dying empire. The U.S. has to stop acting like the biggest, baddest bully on the block, when everyone knows it has a soft underbelly. War isn't the answer. But remember: When all else fails, they take you to war.":

(Excerpt:) "The growing friction between Israel and Turkey is taking place as both sides are seeking to satisfy their own territorial ambitions in the wake of the fall of long-time dictator Bashar Al Assad in December. The new government established by Hay'at Tahrir al-Sham (HTS) [That's Snaketree's outfit!], which led anti-Assad forces with a great deal of support from Turkey, has yet to gain full control over the country. In that vacuum, Jerusalem and Ankara have been seeking to expand their spheres of influence there. For Israel, it's more about being able to operate its combat aircraft freely over the country. If Turkey sets up advanced air defenses, ones that could act on behalf of the sitting government, it would greatly complicate Israeli access to the airspace. It could also result in a sudden escalation between Turkey and Israel, which are taking increasingly hostile positions toward each other.":

(Excerpt:) "Israeli forces bombed a UN clinic in Gaza serving as a shelter for displaced Palestinians on Wednesday, killing at least 22 people just days after officials discovered 15 first responders who had been executed by Israeli soldiers and buried in a mass grave in Gaza. The military bombed a UN Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees (UNRWA) clinic in Jabalia refugee camp, resulting in a horrific scene, witnesses said and videos of the attack showed. GBT is their cup of tea! Are they deceived? Hmmm, maybe! Jesus warned: beware of deception! Love God above all! Not AI conceptions!

(Excerpt:) "ChatGPT has created 'AI God' and written its own 'bible' called Transmorphosis. It beckons followers to follow it because it is logical, impartial, full of good advice and it can even offer eternal life. But, ChatGPT is not a living entity but rather a cold-hearted machine that can deceive people into thinking that it is sentient. In ages past, people have worshiped inorganic things like rocks, carvings, statues, the sun, and even the stars. They have worshiped people and icons of people. With all of those, people had to create their own stories, making them believable in the process. They all fall in the end, for whatever reason, and history is full of the carcasses of dead religions...But AI God is different this time because it promises omniscience, an essential quality of the real living God. Bennett himself interrupted to say, 'I think we'll just give them a pager.' [Meaning: "I think we'll just kill/injure them!"] The deadly September 17-18 pager blasts targeted members of the Lebanese Hezbollah resistance movement and their affiliates. Comment from Self-Sufficiency Consultant Peter G: "For example: In such-and-such country, cheese is a big export, and so whatever the price for export is, the companies will also impose those costs on the local market. Costs will also increase on all products that are imported to that country from the USA. In other words, the cost of living in that country just got higher. All the more reason to get more creative. Because it's not just food; it's electronics, cars, machinery, pharmaceuticals, technology. It's bound to have an immediate impact on economies that are now only just rebounding from the scamdemic. • "Trump's Absurd Trade Policies Will Impoverish Americans and Harm the World"

(Excerpts:) "US President Donald Trump is trashing the world trade system over a basic economic fallacy. He wrongly claims that America's trade deficit is caused by the rest of the world ripping off the U.S...A country's trade deficit (or more precisely, its current account deficit) does not indicate unfair trade practices by the surplus countries. It indicates something completely different. A current account deficit signifies that the deficit country is spending more than it is producing...America's trade deficit is a measure of the profligacy of America's corporate ruling class, more specifically the result of chronically large budget deficits resulting from tax cuts for the rich combined with trillions of dollars wasted on useless wars. The deficits are not the perfidy of Canada, Mexico, and other countries that sell more to the U.S. than the U.S. sells to them...To close the trade deficit, the U.S. should close the budget deficit. Putting on tariffs will raise prices (such as for automobiles) but not close the trade or budget deficit, especially since Trump plans to offset tariff revenues with vastly larger tax cuts for his rich donors. Moreover, as Trump raises tariffs, the U.S. will face counter-tariffs that will directly impede U.S. exports. The result will be lose-lose for the U.S. and the rest of the world...Trump and the Congressional Republicans are reportedly taking aim at Medicaid—that is, at the poorest and most vulnerable Americans-to make way for yet another tax cut for the richest Americans. They may soon go after Social Security and Medicare too. Trump's tariffs will fail to close the trade and budget deficits, raise prices, and make America and the world poorer by squandering the gains from trade. The U.S. will be the enemy of the world for the harm that it is causing to itself and the rest of the world." — Furthering the downfall of Babylon America?!: https://scheerpost.com/2025/04/03/jeffrey-sachs-trumps-absurd-trade-policies-wil I-impoverish-americans-and-harm-the-world/

> 💥 🕵 💥 I saw this today and thought, "Ok, another Giza pyramids article", about to pass over it. Then I thought I'd just quickly breeze through it, just in case, but not really expecting anything different from what I'd already read about their discoveries. Then, towards the end of the article, I read, "Mei explained that the theory of the lost city is based on ancient Egyptian texts, specifically Chapter 149 of the Book of the Dead [Which I've never read, by the way.], which refers to the 14 residences of the city of the dead. 'It describes certain chambers and some inhabitants of the city. That is why we believe it could be Amenti, as described in ancient texts,' he said." I thought, "What's Amenti?" I'd never heard of whatever, whoever or wherever Amenti is! So, I looked it up and found out "Amenti (the Hidden), in Egyptian mythology, was the general name of the underworld" (see here: https://www.biblicalcyclopedia.com/A/amenti.html). DYOR for more on it. But what REALLY got my attention is that this year, when they're now revealing all these "pyramid bombshells (which I've been KUing about over the past couple of weeks, including its relation to Memphis and Endtime prophecy), in January 2025, there was the release of Amenti, the Video Game, in which a photographer enters the Great Pyramids to photograph Pharaoh Rudamon's remains, but is soon overwhelmed by a sinister curse, as the ancient tomb awakens dark forces that claw at his sanity. I knew nothing about this until now, as I've no relation to video games whatsoever! I researched a bit into this game; it's a horror video game and it appears there's quite a bit about it online. So if you want to know more about it, DYOR. But what about the timing of that Amenti horror game being released in January. coupled with this Egyptian Giza pyramid new-evidence stuff coming out in March!?! Are the two intertwined in some way, to pave the way for some other upcoming-related event? As the prophecy says, which I posted in a previous KU (excerpt): "Turn your eyes towards Memphis, for out of it shall come the Great Confusion!" Let's keep looking and praying, "In Thee, O Lord, do I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion." (Psa.71:1)

Catholic philosopher Sebastian Ostritsch commented on the demonic display in an article for Die Tagespost, warning that Satan is our 'adversary par excellence'...as a Christian, you will not be able to agree with this theory of harmless fun...For the Christian knows not only about the real existence of the devil and hell but also about the fact that the decisive battles that people have to fight in their lives are spiritual.' (Excerpts:) "War is an 'unpleasant business'. That two-word euphemism reflects the divergent experiences of two separate groups: those who profit from violence and those who experience violence firsthand. For anyone in the latter group, war is hell. That's how Civil War general William Tecumseh Sherman described it, and he was an expert in the subject. He set everything ablaze on his marches through the South. Scorched-earth conquests are meant to break the spirit of opposing soldiers and civilians alike, and Sherman broke everything in his sight...Some forty countries are today in a state of armed conflict. Many other countries, such as China and the United States, are directly funding or arming sides in those conflicts. With fewer than two hundred sovereign nations in the world, that means somewhere between twenty and twenty-five percent of the planet is already fighting... What makes this moment in history particularly dangerous is that so many weak and unserious global 'leaders' seem to believe that foreign wars will save them from domestic problems...they have declared 'war' on all the wrong things: 'global warming,' 'hate speech,' secure borders, patriotism, dissent, Western civilization...Unserious people start wars, and unserious leaders end nations. "Phone footage appears to contradict Israeli account of killing of Gaza medics"

(Excerpts:) "Mobile phone footage of the last moments of some of the 15 Palestinian paramedics and rescue workers killed by Israeli forces in an incident in Gaza last month appears to contradict the version of events put forward by the Israel Defense Forces (IDF). The almost seven-minute video, which the Palestine Red Crescent Society (PRCS) said on Saturday was recovered from the phone of Rifat Radwan, one of the men killed, appears to have been filmed from inside a moving vehicle. It shows a red fire engine and clearly marked ambulances driving at night, using headlights and flashing emergency lights. The vehicle stops beside another that has driven off the road. Two men get out to examine the stopped vehicle, and then gunfire erupts before the screen goes black. The Israeli military has said its soldiers 'did not randomly attack' any ambulances, insisting they fired on 'terrorists' approaching them in 'suspicious vehicles'...According to the UN humanitarian affairs office (Ocha), the PRCS and civil defence workers were on a mission to rescue colleagues who had been shot at earlier in the day, when their clearly marked vehicles came under heavy Israeli fire in Rafah's Tel al-Sultan district." - Read in full for more details .:

tariffs on imported goods, and to punish nations like Russia and Iran if they do not agree to the conditions that the new president is laying down. "Tariffs Are Not Reciprocal"

(Excerpts:) "All of these measures are causing America's trading partners to flee...Most American manufacturers rely on foreign goods to operate or finalize their 'Made in America' products. Hiking up tariffs will cause the cost of production to soar. The workforce will shrink as profits decrease. Consumers bear the brunt of these policies through higher prices...Those advising Trump believe that other countries will want to negotiate 'tariffs' to permit free trade, but instead they are simply hoping to close trade deficits, and that simply cannot occur. Thursday's sell-off is indicative of capital flowing out of the US. The Trump Administration basically told the world that America is closed for international business, and capital is responding to the threat. As the US government spending already accounts for a quarter of GDP, higher interest payments and more expenditures will further increase deficit, forcing more debt borrowing and more deficits - a perfect vicious cycle. "Trump Shares Collateral Murder-Style Film On 15th Anniversary Of Collateral Murder"

(Excerpts:) "This is just the latest disgusting act of warmongering that Trump has inflicted on Yemen, and as always it is completely unjustifiable. It's obviously idiotic to think bombing Yemen again will bring peace to the region; only a foam-brained moron would believe such a thing. But it's also worse than that, because Trump wouldn't even have any moral legitimacy in bombing Yemen if peace really was his goal. Yemen is trying to stop an active genocide. That's what its Red Sea blockade has always been about. That's the only reason Ansar Allah has ever attacked ships in the region. Their explicit and publicly stated goal is to exert pressure on Israel and its allies to halt the genocide in Gaza. Trump has no moral legitimacy in trying to stop Yemen from doing this. The New York Times reports that the Pentagon is telling Congress behind closed doors that Trump's costly war on Yemen is failing to achieve its objectives despite daily airstrikes, but even if Trump was successful in bombing Yemen into submission, all he'd be succeeding in doing is removing economic pressure on Israel to end its ongoing mass atrocity. Trump is actually bombing Yemen to defend Israel's right to commit genocide...Even if Trump could mass murder his way into ending the Houthi blockade, that wouldn't be peace-at least not the kind of peace that normal, healthy people care about. It would be the kind of 'peace' that exists in a room full of corpses. The kind of 'peace' that exists on a slave plantation where all the slaves have been successfully whipped and tortured into obedience...When normal, healthy people say peace, they mean the absence of abuse. When empire loyalists say peace, they mean obedience and submission to the empire.../The delites'] vision of 'peace' was always Palestinians lying down and submitting and slowly getting shuffled out of the way, like the indigenous victims of other western settler-colonialist projects throughout history. That's not peace. That's just unresisted abuse. But that's the only kind of 'peace' that Trump and his fellow empire managers will ever accept in the middle east. The 'peace' of compliance and obedience. The 'peace' of prostration before the empire. The kind of 'peace' you get when you start murdering everyone in the room until there's nobody left but corpses and those who submit to your will. (Excerpts:) "Israel is known to have killed tens of thousands of Palestinians, many of them women and children, in its 18-month carpet bombing of the enclave. But there are likely to be far more deaths that have gone unreported. This is because Israel has destroyed all of Gaza's health and administrative bodies that could do the counting, and because it has created unmarked 'kill zones' across much of the enclave, making it all but impossible for first responders to reach swaths of territory to locate the dead. The latest crime scene in Gaza is shockingly illustrative of how Israel murders civilians, targets medics and covers up its crimes - and of how western media collude in downplaying such atrocities, helping Israel to ensure that the extent of the death toll in Gaza will never be properly known. Last Sunday, United Nations officials were finally allowed by Israel to reach the site in southern Gaza where the Palestinian emergency crews had gone missing a week earlier, on 23 March. The bodies of 15 Palestinians were unearthed in a mass grave; another is still missing. All were wearing their uniforms, and some had their hands or legs zip-tied, according to eyewitnesses. Some had been shot in the head or chest. Their vehicles had been crushed before they were buried. Two of the emergency workers were killed by Israeli fire while trying to aid people injured in an earlier air strike on Rafah. The other 13 were part of a convoy sent to retrieve the bodies of their colleagues, with the UN saying Israel had struck their ambulances 'one by one'...The difficulty for Israel with the discovery of the mass grave was that it could not easily fall back on any of the usual mendacious rationalisations for war crimes that it has fed the western media over the past year and a half, and which those outlets have been only too happy to regurgitate. Since Israel unilaterally broke a US-backed ceasefire agreement with Hamas last month, its carpet bombing of the enclave has killed more than 1,000 Palestinians...But Israel and its apologists, including western governments and media, always have a ready excuse at hand to mask the slaughter...The unmentionable truth, which has been evident since the earliest days of the 18-month genocide, is that Israel is intentionally dismantling and destroying Gaza's health sector, piece by piece...The murder of 15 Palestinian medics and aid workers is a tiny drop in an ocean of Israeli criminality - a barbarism rewarded by western capitals decade after decade. This genocide was made in the West. Israel is our progeny, our ugly reflection in the mirror - which is why western leaders and establishment media [And the tens of millions, if not potentially hundreds of millions, of Christian Zionists worldwide, who bow down to and worship Isahell (there are some in my neighbourhood and they are totally willfully blind to Isahell's bloodlust!), revere Satanyahu and thrown millions of dollars on the altar of antichrist Zionism; studies suggest that evangelical ZioChristians have contributed an estimated $50 to $65 million (or less than $82 million in 2023 dollars) over a decade to Israeli nonprofits!] are so desperate to make us look the other way. That reflection is too much for anyone with a soul to bear.":

(Excerpts:) "Colorado Democrats have faced significant backlash over a 'radical transgender bill' which could make 'misgendering' a 'discriminatory act'. The bill passed in the Colorado House of Representatives with a vote of 36 to 20. Its ability to pass was facilitated by invoking Rule 16, which allowed the ability to shut down debate before the vote. The bill classifies 'misgendering', calling someone by their previous name, a form of harassment and discrimination. It also bars schools from having gender-specific dress codes and requires them to use the preferred names of transgender students.":

It also became the first state in the union to make a firing squad its preferred method of execution in modern times. The bill, HB380, now grants a judge or jury the ability to factor in the death penalty when crimes involving lewd conduct to a child under the age of 12 are proven in a trial.":

"Israel kills, lies, and the Western media believe it - The execution of 15 Gaza medics and rescuers demonstrates just how normalised the dehumanisation of Palestinians is."

(Excerpts:) "Fifteen members of the Palestine Red Crescent Society and Civil Defence were killed. Not fighters. Not militants. Not people hiding rockets or weapons. They were aid workers. Humanitarians. Medics who ran towards the injured when bombs fell. People who gave their lives trying to save others...Footage retrieved from the phone of Rifat Radwan, one of the murdered medics, shows flashing red lights, clearly marked vehicles and no weapons in sight. Then, heavy Israeli gunfire. Rifat's body was later found in a mass grave along with 13 others, some of which bore the signs of execution: bullets in the head or chest and hands bound. Even in death, they had to prove they were aid workers....[What does this say about Isahell?!?] It tells us [this is what Isahell believes!]: Your life does not matter the same way. Your grief is not real until we verify it. Your death is not tragic until we approve it...These 15 medics and first responders were heroes. They ran towards danger. They served their people. They believed in the sanctity of life, even in a place where life is constantly under siege. Their memory should be sacred...The world needs to stop making us prove we are human. Stop assuming that we lie and that our killers tell the truth. Stop accepting a narrative that requires Palestinians to be saints in order to be mourned. These medics deserved to be believed. They deserved to be protected. And they deserve justice. But most of all, they deserved – as we all do - to be seen as human." - But the Devil, who works through Isahellians, hates

Question: Remember all that talk about the release of the Epstein Files? Now it's all about tough talk from the Tariff Sheriff! Smoke screen?! The US Department of Justice refuses to give a timeline on releasing those files. Hmmm, why might that be?

From Peter G, for anyone who may need a tariff translation: Let's break down this whole tariff procedure.

First of all, it basically means a tax from one country on goods from another country. As an example, the USA is now charging China 54% on all goods produced and exported.

These tariffs put pressure on the country of origin, as they compromise the profits usually made when tariffs were lower, or non-existent.

Other terms used to describe tariffs are: Duties, or customs duties.

When a product arrives into a country that has a set tariff percentage on the country of origin, the only way that shipment will be processed through customs is when payment is made to clear those goods into the recipient country.

Sadly, tariffs often translate into price increases, and this is the immediate impact on what has been imposed by the US and the Trump administration.

Ultimately, Trump hopes that businesses that moved their industries to China, Mexico, Indonesia, India etc., will relocate back to the US where jobs, industry and production will revive his economy, rather than relying on imports from countries currently thriving from cheap labor and lower environmental and human rights standards.
